2018 IEDC LEADERSHIP AND HONORARY AWARDS ENTRY PACKET

LEADERSHIP AWARDS

These awards recognize outstanding leaders in the public and private sectors who continue to advance economic development in their communities. One individual will be presented an award for each category.

1. Young Economic Development Professional of the Year

This award recognizes outstanding achievements by a young, emerging leader in the economic development profession. Applicants must self-nominate and should detail their significant career achievements to date and the impact of those achievements on their economic development organization and the community as a whole, and also explain how they see these achievements contribute to the advancement of economic development as a profession. Each self nomination should be accompanied by a minimum of one, and not more than three, letters of endorsement on behalf of the applicant, from their supervisor, board chair, or other significant leader in the community who is actively involved with the applicant's organization (e.g., a mayor or senior elected official, a key business leader). Applicants must be no more than 35 years of age on the deadline submission date set by IEDC for that year's awards competition in order to be eligible for this award and must note their date of birth on their application.

Please complete a profile of the individual's achievements to be considered for this recognition. The profile cannot exceed 5 pages, double-spaced. Letters of endorsement should be no more than 2 pages and must be submitted in conjunction with the application. Nominators are responsible for assisting IEDC staff in confirming award recipient's appearance at the Recognition Dinner during IEDC's Annual Conference in Atlanta, Georgia.

2. Leadership Award for Public Service – Sponsored by

This award recognizes an elected official who has served as a committed advocate for economic development for at least 10 years in the public sector. Nominees must have demonstrated sustained and effective efforts to mobilize community groups and industry leaders in the development of programs and projects, played a key role in the planning and designing of new economic development activities, and displayed dedication and commitment to her/her constituency as a leader and advocate for economic development.

Please complete a profile of the individual's achievements to be considered for this recognition. The profile cannot exceed 5 pages, double-spaced. Letters of endorsement should be no more than 2 pages and must be submitted in conjunction with the application. Nominators are responsible for assisting IEDC staff in confirming award recipient's appearance at the Recognition Dinner during IEDC's Annual Conference in Atlanta, Georgia.

3. Citizen Leadership Award

This award recognizes a community or business leader, or an individual who is not an economic development practitioner, but who plays a key leadership role. Nominees for the award should have shown support for or been involved in a broad range of activities for at least 10 years and have been involved in economic development, primarily in the private sector, for the last 5 years. Nominees must have demonstrated sustained and effective efforts to mobilize leadership in the development of programs and projects, played a key role in the planning and designing of new and creative economic development activities and be deeply committed as a leader and advocate for economic development.

Please complete a profile of the individual's achievements to be considered for this recognition. The profile cannot exceed 5 pages, double-spaced. Letters of endorsement should be no more than 2 pages and must be submitted in conjunction with the application. Nominators are responsible for assisting IEDC staff in confirming award recipient's appearance at the Recognition Dinner during IEDC's Annual Conference in Atlanta, Georgia.

4. Institutional Leadership Award

This award recognizes a leader of a community institution (university, community college, hospital, local foundation or other community institution) who has made significant contributions to the community in support of economic development through their leadership, financial support, local investments, hiring, training or related activities. Nominees, though not economic developers themselves, should demonstrate a sustained effort in the promotion and support of local economic development program.

Please complete a profile of the individual's achievements to be considered for this recognition. The profile cannot exceed 5 pages, double-spaced. Letters of endorsement should be no more than 2 pages and must be submitted in conjunction with the application. Nominators are responsible for assisting IEDC staff in confirming award recipient's appearance at the Recognition Dinner during IEDC's Annual Conference in Atlanta, Georgia.

5. Jeffrey A. Finkle Organizational Leadership Award

This award recognizes an individual who has continuously led the same public or non-profit economic development organization with integrity, tenacity, and a philanthropic spirit for at least 15 years. Nominees should demonstrate a vast knowledge of the intricacies of the economic development profession and play a pivotal role in the continued success of their organization. They have not only exhibited exemplary leadership but have also worked tirelessly to develop the leaders around them and have a history of active participation with IEDC. The winner of this award will automatically become an Honorary Life Member (HLM) of IEDC.

Please complete a profile of the individual's achievements to be considered for this recognition. The profile cannot exceed 5 pages, double-spaced. Letters of endorsement should be no more than 2 pages and must be submitted in conjunction with the application. Nominators are responsible for assisting IEDC staff in confirming award recipient's appearance at the Recognition Dinner during IEDC's Annual Conference in Atlanta, Georgia.

6. Federal Leadership in Economic Development Programs Award (Entry Fee waived)

HONORARY AWARDS

Each year, IEDC's Honorary Awards Committee honors long-standing IEDC members for their contributions to the field of economic development. The three Honorary Award Categories are below:

Fellow Member (FM)

Fellow Member (FM) status is conferred upon active IEDC members who have attained unusual stature in the field of economic development and closely related disciplines. Unusual stature is defined as significant contributions to the profession through service to the Council and/or academic endeavors directly related to the practice of economic development. A Fellow holds the classification as long as membership in the Council is maintained.

- Please complete the application on page 8 to be considered for this recognition.

Honorary Life Member (HLM)

Honorary Life Member (HLM) status is conferred upon active or former members of IEDC who have furthered the profession of economic development and have been a teacher or inspiration on the part of the profession to others in many communities.

- Please complete the application on page 5 to be considered for this recognition.

Lifetime Achievement Award for Excellence in Economic Development, in honor of Edward deLuca

One individual will be recognized for lifelong commitment to excellence in economic development. This award is given in honor of Edward deLuca, who is credited as one of the true leaders in the field of urban economic development. He was one of the founding members of the Council for Urban Economic Development (CUED), a predecessor of IEDC, and served as its first chair. He also served as the Director of Economic Development for the cities of Baltimore and Pittsburgh.

The winner of this award will automatically become an Honorary Life Member (HLM) of IEDC. Nominees should demonstrate:

- Consistent exemplary performance in the economic development profession for at least 20 years.
- Innovative and effective business skills and leadership in executing economic development projects that have had a significant impact on communities.
- A widespread and positive impact on other practitioners in development with whom the nominee has had contact.
- Candidates must not have served as voting members of IEDC's Board of Directors for the past 4 years.
- Please complete a profile of the individual's achievements to be considered for this recognition. The profile cannot exceed 5 pages, double-spaced.
