

Our mission and vision

- Advocate entrepreneurship as a strategy for economic growth and community development
- National operating foundation
- Provide second-stage entrepreneurs with greater support

Impact of second-stage companies

- Powerful job creators
- Typically have national or international markets
- Introduce innovations that are transforming their industries
- Attract talent and investment
- Give back to their communities

Our beneficiaries

- Second-stage growth companies (those with about 10-99 employees and $1 million to $50 million in annual revenue)
- Entrepreneur support organizations (chambers of commerce, SBDCs, tech councils, economic development agencies, etc.)
- Communities
 - New job creation
 - Creation of wealth
 - Community investment

Our programs include...

- Retreats at Big Rock Valley for leadership development
- PeerSpectives[®] roundtables for peer learning
- Economic Gardening[®] services for strategic information
- Companies to Watch[®] recognition program

More Information

Edward Lowe Foundation

Colleen Killen-Roberts

colleen@lowe.org

Change at the Edges

Penny Lewandowski

penny@changingedges.com